The undersigned hereby certifies under penalty of perjury that:

1. I am the legal owner of record of the property described above; and
2. The property described above is my principal place of residence, or if the application for a permit to construct a new residence, the new residence will be my principal place of residence upon completion; and
3. I am familiar with construction codes, city ordinances, and state laws applicable to such construction activity; and
4. All work under the permit issued as a result of this application will be performed by me or under my supervision; and
5. All work must be completed in conformance with current applicable construction codes and must pass inspections by city inspectors; and
6. I will pay for a re-inspection fee for any re-inspections required as a result of the work not being ready for inspection or not being in conformance with the applicable code when inspected; and
7. If, after the work has been inspected, the Building Official determines that I do not have the knowledge and/or experience to complete the work in conformance with applicable construction codes, the Building Official may stop the work and require me to engage a licensed and bonded contractor to complete the work; and
8. I have received a copy of the Homeowner Liability Notice.
